	How am I going to do it? (100 words) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Browsing through internet resources to study the fundamentals of the Japanese language, such as pronunciation, vocabulary, syntax, and sentence structure.</li> <li>- Discover language teaching apps that can help me with my studies.</li> <li>- Look up information on Japanese artistic culture on the web.</li> <li>- Conduct on-site studies by visiting museums/galleries to study and analyse Japanese Arts (eg. Paintings, Tokyo Gallery by Musée Collection, HULS Gallery Singapore, etc.).</li> <li>- Visit the library to find printed materials (books, magazines) on Japanese culture.</li> <li>- Clarify with the teacher if I have questions and doubts during my learning.</li> <li>- Watch video tutorials online.</li> </ul>
What will I show as evidence of my learning in my project portfolio?	E.g. Report, prototype, checklist, glossary of terms, reflection, draft designs, surveys, survey analyses, interview transcripts, etc. (50-100 words). I plan to: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>- Have an online journal where I record my findings and reflections on what I have learnt about the Japanese language on a weekly basis.</li> <li>- Do an analysis/breakdown of a Japanese song or poem weekly.</li> <li>- Produce a report on Japanese artistic culture.</li> <li>- (If applicable) Include photographs and videos in my report when I participate in their activities while researching their arts culture.</li> </ul>
What else would I like to say about my project?	Share how this project is important or meaningful to you personally.  E.g. I have never done marketing before. Now I have a product which I would like to market. I really hope to pick up some useful skills and ideas on how to market my product and get opportunity to meet some industry expert to mentor me. When I was seven years old, listening to J-pop and watching anime (Japanese animations) piqued my interest in the language. The similarity in word meanings and the inclusion of Chinese characters in phrases brought me to the conclusion that Mandarin (Chinese) played a significant impact in the development of the Japanese language. I want to understand more about this impact and do further study on it. Because I would be pushing myself to learn a new language, this project would be a big step for me. I think that whatever I learn and do for this project will be useful to me when I enter the real world.
